

SEALED

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

SEAN GARLAND,
CHRISTOPHER JOHN CORCORAN,
DAVID LEVIN,
TERENCE SILCOCK,
HUGH TODD,
ALAN JONES, and
MARK ADDERLEY,

Defendants.

CRIMINAL No. 05-185 - RMC

FILED

OCT - 7 2005

SHIRLEY MAYER WHITTINGTON, CLERK
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

ORDER

Having considered the Government's Motion to Modify Order Sealing Indictment, and for good cause stated therein, the Court

FINDS that upon the arrest of any defendant in this case there will no longer exist a legitimate prosecutorial interest and extraordinary situation, and consequent compelling governmental interest, justifying the sealing of the Indictment and other papers filed in this matter, and delay of entry of this case upon the public docket; and it is hereby ORDERED that the Indictment in this case shall remain SEALED, except that upon the arrest of any defendant in this case the Indictment in this matter, as well as all other papers filed thus far in this case, shall be unsealed without further order of the Court. Accordingly, upon any defendant's arrest, the government may disclose the Indictment, and related papers filed in this case, to foreign authorities, and may otherwise make them public. The government is hereby directed to promptly file a notice advising of the date and time of such an arrest, thereby enabling the Clerk of Court to unseal and enter upon the public docket, and make public, the indictment and other filings in the case.

(N)

SO ORDERED, this 7th day of October, 2005.
